

LenderLive Holdings Enters into Definitive Agreement to Sell Its Network Fulfillment Division to Computershare

Sale Will Accelerate Company's Shift Toward Services and Technology Businesses

Denver—August 17, 2018—LenderLive Holdings, the parent company of LenderLive Services, LenderLive Network and Require Holdings, announced today that it has entered into an agreement to sell LenderLive Network, LLC (LLN), its mortgage fulfillment and secondary marketing division, to Computershare Loan Services, a global leader in mortgage servicing.

Commenting on the deal, Rob Clements, chief executive officer of LenderLive Holdings, said: “The decision to sell the Network division grew out of our long-term strategic plan to invest in and build the company’s services and technology businesses while finding long-term strategic capital sources or partners for the fulfillment and secondary marketing businesses. Going forward, LenderLive Holdings will continue to offer a broad range of technology-enabled services through our LenderLive Services division and grow through strategic acquisitions like the recently-closed Require Holdings transaction.”

John Surface, president and chief operating officer of LenderLive Holdings added: “We believe LenderLive Network fits naturally into Computershare's strategy of growing its end-to-end mortgage businesses and the combined company will have greater scale and market opportunity. This transaction will position the Network division’s clients, associates and partners for continued success while allowing LenderLive Holdings to execute strategic growth plans in its remaining business lines.”

“We’re very excited to be bringing LenderLive Network into the Computershare family,” said Nick Oldfield, CEO of Computershare Loan Services. “The team at LenderLive Network has a strong client base, and their outstanding products and people will be a natural fit for us as we continue to build a comprehensive mortgage service offering.”

The sale, which is subject to regulatory approvals, is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2018. LenderLive Holdings, LenderLive Services and Require Holdings will not be part of this transaction.
